COME AND LISTEN!

Do you know what God has planned for your life?

Are you sad, angry, discouraged, or feeling alone?

Are you struggling to pass faith to your children?

Catechesis for Adults & Youth (13+)Mondays & Thursdays at 8:00 p.m.*In the Parish Hall*Starting: Monday, January 26thFree BabysittingCaring for the Youngest Neighbors:*Samaritan House Seeks Support for Children's Clinic

As the number of families experiencing housing insecurity in Denver continues to grow, so does the need for basic health supplies that many parents simply cannot afford. Items such as over-the-counter cold and flu medications, fever reducers and other essential care products make an immediate difference for children who might otherwise go without treatment for common illnesses.

For Catholics committed to building a culture of life, this partnership offers a tangible way to live out the Gospel call to serve Christ in the poor, the sick and the vulnerable. Supporting Samaritan House's children's clinic is an act of mercy that reaches children where they are — offering care, dignity and hope at a time when it is needed most.

Those interested in supporting the clinic are encouraged to consider donating supplies or resources to help meet these urgent needs. In doing so, the faithful become partners in a ministry that protects life and nurtures healing, one child at a time.

THE NEOCATECHUMENAL WAY: “A PRECIOUS CONTRIBUTION TO THE LIFE OF THE CHURCH”
January 19, 2026

You have lit the fire of the Gospel where it seemed to be dying out.

Pope Leo XIV

POPE LEO XIV MEETS WITH 1,000 ITINERANT CATECHISTS FROM THE NEOCATECHUMENAL WAY

This morning, January 19, 2026, the Holy Father Leo XIV received more than 1,000 itinerant catechists in an audience in the Hall of Blessings, responsible for the Neocatechumenal Way in 138 nations on five continents.

At the end of their convivence held at the “Servant of Yahweh” Center in Porto San Giorgio, under the guidance of the team responsible for the Way worldwide, Kiko Argüello, Father Mario Pezzi, and María Ascensión Romero met in Rome for their first encounter with the Holy Father Leo XIV.

During the convivence, as has been done every year since the Way began, participants shared the evangelization experience that the Way is carrying out in more than 6,200 parishes in 1,408 dioceses around the world to promote Christian initiation, a tool to help bishops and priests in different countries in their work of proclaiming the Gospel in today’s world.

Also present at the gathering and audience with the Holy Father were the 115 rectors of the Diocesan Missionary Seminaries that the Way has helped to open in many dioceses, together with another hundred formators.

Pope Leo addressed those present with these words:

I would like to express my gratitude to the families who, responding to the inner prompting of the Spirit, leave behind the security of ordinary life and set out on mission, even to distant and difficult territories, with the sole desire to proclaim the Gospel and bear witness to God’s love.

Itinerant teams made up of families, catechists, and priests participate in the evangelizing mission of the whole Church and... contribute to “awakening” the faith of non-Christians who have never heard of Jesus Christ.

Living the experience of the Neocatechumenal Way and carrying out the mission also requires, on your part, interior vigilance and a wise critical capacity, in order to discern certain risks that always threaten spiritual and ecclesial life. Charisms are always placed at the service of the Kingdom of God and of the one Church of Christ, in which no gift of God is more important than any other.

The good you do is great, because its purpose is to enable people to know Christ.

Continue forward in joy and humility, without discouragement, as builders and witnesses of communion.

Dear friends, I thank you for your commitment, for your joyful witness, and for the service you render to the Church and to the world. I encourage you to continue with enthusiasm, and I bless you, invoking upon you the intercession of the Virgin Mary, that she may accompany and protect you. Thank you!

PRAYER OF SAINT THOMAS AQUINAS

Grant me,
O Lord my God,
a mind to know you,
a heart to seek you,
wisdom to find you,
conduct pleasing to you,
faithful perseverance
in waiting for you,
and a hope of finally embracing you.
Amen

Lord, love never fails.

When the crusade for life seems unending and our latest initiatives have failed, when our hearts are filled with sadness or anger or fear, come to our aid, O Lord, and give us the assurance that you are ever with us, that your mercies will not end, and that you, our Creator and our God, will bring victory to all who seek to love as you have commanded them.
