

SAINT JAMES CATHOLIC CHURCH

“be doers of the word not hearers only.....” James 1:22

THIRD SUNDAY OF EASTER

APRIL 18 & 19, 2026

Two of Jesus’ disciples were going to a village seven miles from Jerusalem called Emmaus, and they were conversing about all the things that had occurred.

And it happened that, debating, Jesus himself drew near and walked with them, but their eyes were prevented from recognizing Him.

He asked them, ‘What are you discussing as you walk along?’

And it happened that, while He was with them at table, He took bread, said the blessing, broke it, and gave it to them.

With that their eyes were opened and they recognized Him, but He vanished from their sight.

Luke 24:13-35

POPE LEO CALLS FAITHFUL TO PRAY FOR PEACE

In his first Easter Urbi et Orbi message on Easter Sunday, the pontiff linked Jesus’ Resurrection to peace. He noted that Jesus’ conquest of death, darkness and hatred came at the cost of his life. Still, Jesus gave his life freely out of love — the same love the faithful are called to show to neighbor in a “new humanity” in the Risen Christ.

An integral part of this renewed brotherhood is a concerted effort to avoid becoming desensitized to violence in all its forms.

“We are growing accustomed to violence, resigning ourselves to it, and becoming indifferent,” he explained. “Indifferent to the deaths of thousands of people. Indifferent to the repercussions of hatred and division that conflicts sow. Indifferent to the economic and social consequences they produce, which we all feel.

“We cannot continue to be indifferent! And we cannot resign ourselves to evil!” he continued.

As an Easter people, Pope Leo emphasized, the hope of the Risen Christ must permeate our world and our hearts, inspiring meaningful transformation.

“The peace that Jesus gives us is not merely the silence of weapons but the peace that touches and transforms the heart of each one of us!” he said. “Let us allow ourselves to be transformed by the peace of Christ! Let us make heard the cry for peace that springs from our hearts!”

Then, more emphatically, he pleaded: “Let those who have weapons lay them down! Let those who have the power to unleash wars choose peace! Not a peace imposed by force, but through dialogue! Not with the desire to dominate others, but to encounter them!”
