FOSTER CARE INSIGHTS

What does foster care really look like in Colorado?

Join Hope's Promise and Springs of Love for an honest and eye-opening conversation about the foster care system, the challenges families face and the hope that fuels this work forward.

A panel discussion and live Q&A will feature individuals directly involved in the foster care journey.

All are welcome to come learn, connect and explore how you can make a difference for children and foster families in our community.

THE CORPUS CHRISTI PROCESSION

Eucharistic procession sums up all of evangelization in the most tangible terms, doesn't it? We're all just part of the crowd that's been walking behind Him for 2,000 years, and even when we might encounter hostility from a culture that doesn't want Him...we keep walking...and our response is simply, "I'm with Him."

- When I love and serve, I want the world to know it's because "I'm with Him."
- When I'm faithful to my Church and family even when it's hard, it's because "I'm with Him."

And when I find myself in a culture that's forgotten God...and I'm pressured to compromise, or find myself canceled, "I'm still with him."

5 TIPS FOR EVANGELIZATION FROM POPE FRANCIS

When we think of evangelization, what comes to mind? Do we feel equipped to evangelize? We might pressure ourselves with high expectations, thinking we must have the equivalent of a theology degree to adequately explain Church teaching or nerves of steel to win arguments.

Pope Francis has one particular paragraph that offers us a lot of guidance on this informal preaching. Here is the majority of that paragraph, and then we'll get into the practical suggestions:

In this preaching, which is always respectful and gentle, the first step is personal dialogue, when the other person speaks and shares his or her joys, hopes and concerns for loved ones or so many other heartfelt needs. Only afterwards is it possible to bring up God's word, perhaps by reading a Bible verse or relating a story, but always keeping in mind the fundamental message ... If it seems prudent and if the circumstances are right, this fraternal and missionary encounter could end with a brief prayer related to the concerns which the person may have expressed. In this way they will have an experience of being listened to and understood; they will know that their particular situation has been placed before God.

(EG 128)

Heartfelt Sharing

It is within the context of personal dialogue that we may have an opportunity to evangelize with this informal preaching. Pope Francis even tells us how we might recognize the right moment. It is when the other person shares something heartfelt — a joy, concern, hope or a need. When we listen to another, and they share something vulnerable, we should recognize that a depth of conversation is opening up and that this may be an opportunity to share the Good News.

Bible Verse

When a person has shared a joy or a struggle, it can be a good time to provide a verse of Scripture that might touch his or her heart. “The word of God is living and effective, sharper than any two-edged sword, penetrating even between soul and spirit, joints and marrow, and able to discern reflections and thoughts of the heart” (Hebrews 4:12).

Relating a Story

“Always be ready to give an explanation to anyone who asks you for a reason for your hope” (1 Peter 3:15).

Hearing how God has worked in someone's life is compelling. Sometime soon, take time to reflect on what God has done in your life. Not only is this a great opportunity to grow in gratitude, but it will also help you witness to his goodness. How has he changed you? Given you hope? Helped you through a difficulty or blessed you with something joyful?

Fundamental Message

While doing all of this, Pope Francis reminds us to always keep the fundamental message in mind: the Gospel message. The story we share and the conversation we have should never stray far from the Good News. This keeps Christ at the center.

The Gospel message has four main points:

Created: God created you in love and has a plan for your life.

Captured: The Enemy captured you through sin, harming that relationship and God's plan for you.

Rescued: God sent his Son, Jesus, to rescue you by dying for your sins and bring you back into relationship with him.

Response: We are invited to respond by changing our lives and making Jesus our Lord.

Praying Together

Lastly, Pope Francis calls on us to pray together. We are not used to doing this! I would encourage you to try. If you are unsure what to say, you could simply say the prayer Jesus taught us: the Our Father. This informal preaching can happen quite often if we are attentive to the opportunities God sends us. Try to practice even just one or two of these suggestions from Pope Francis, pray for courage and be assured that the Holy Spirit is at work in the heart of the one you encounter and in you as you spread the Good News.
